ROBERT E. LEE,

Assistant District Attorney for the Parish of Orleans, who in the name and by the authority of the said State, prosecutes, in this behalf, in proper person comes into the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans, in the Parish of Orleans, and gives the said Court here to understand and be informed that one _____

late of the Parish of Orleans, on the twenty-eighth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven with force and arms in the Parish of Orleans aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans, appeared as a witness before the Grand Jury of the Parish of Orleans and committed perjury by testifying as follows:

Question by James L. Alcock, Assistant District Attorney

Q. Dean, do you know the real Clay

A. The man I believe is Gene Davis, and if you ask him he'll call me a crocksack of lies,

Q. Now what leads you to believe that this is Clay Bertrand?

A. Because I believe it. I am the only one who has to account for myself.

Q. What basis do you have?

A. Helen Gort -- back in the 50's, at the fag wedding reception I was telling you all about, introduced me to Davis as Clay Bertrand.

Q. And this was the man who was introduced to you as Clay Bertrand?

A. Right.

Q. Have you talked to this man on the phone recently?

A. I talk to him almost every day. I have known him a long time.

Q. Your testimony now is that this is the man who sent clients to your office? Talked to you on behalf of homosexuals?

A. This is the man who sent clients to my office, sometimes they were _____ says sometimes they weren't.

Q. Is this the man who called you in the hospital and asked you to represent Lee Harvey Oswald?

A. This is the man I believe called me. I believe - what you all believe is your affair.

Question by Grand Juror:

Q. Is your name, then, on Clay Bertrand's file who was called you down through the years representing him?

A. No, he didn't do it that way. That's the way I said it.
Put it into the Warren Commission Report - everybody picks it up from there and goes with it. I never said it other than in the Warren Report.

Question by Richard V. Barnes, Assistant District Attorney

Q. I asked you if you ever heard from Clay Bertrand after the time you were called about representing Lee Oswald in the assassination and the answer was I ain't seen nor heard of him since.

A. Not from Clay Bertrand cause I call him Gene Davis.
You are right, I told you that, and I ain't seen him nor hear of him nor heard from Clay Bertrand .. other than once I remember when I was with Regis up there, I call him Gene, I was introduced to the man one time.

Q. Did this man change appearance and change personality with the name change?

A. No.

Q. He still looked the same?

A. No, he has changed, he is fat like me. He's aged. Time has gone by, this has been 12
